9 "NEW SECTION. Sec. 4. A new section is added to Title 43 RCW to 10 read as follows:

11 (1) The Washington aerospace futures account is created in the 12 custody of the state treasurer. The governor may authorize 13 expenditures from the account. Expenditures from the account may be 14 made only for purposes of statewide aerospace workforce and industry
15 development, including programs and activities related to workforce
16 training and education, research and development, and aerospace
17 industry retention and expansion. Administrative expenses, including 18 staff support, may be paid from the account. Revenues to the account
19 consist of moneys received from grants and donations, funds
20 administered under the governor's discretion that are deposited into 21 the account, and moneys received pursuant to legislative 22 appropriations.

23 (2) For fiscal years 2009 through 2011, such programs and 24 activities shall be supported by federal workforce investment act
25 funds or other discretionary funds administered by the governor.
26 These funds may be invested independently to support such programs and 27 activities or may be used as match to leverage additional investments.

NEW SECTION. Sec. 5. This act is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, or safety, or support of the state government and its existing public institutions, and takes effect immediately."

Renumber the remaining section consecutively and correct any internal references accordingly.

Correct the title.

EFFECT: Requires that reporting by the Institute be done jointly with the agency or entity designated by the Governor. Creates the Washington aerospace futures account from which the Governor may authorize expenditures for purposes of statewide aerospace workforce and industry development, including programs and activities related to aerospace workforce training and education, research and development, and aerospace industry retention and expansion. Adds an emergency clause.
